IUPAC 2025 - SPECIAL THEMATIC SESSION ON “AI IN CHEMISTRY”

A Special Thematic Session on “AI in Chemistry” is being jointly organised by the Chinese Chemical Society (CCS), the Russian Academy of Sciences (RAS), and Institut Kimia Malaysia (IKM) at IUPAC 2025. At this moment, close to 20 speakers will be speaking on the applications of AI in various areas in chemistry.

We also have three (3) Keynote Lectures by (1) Prof Xuefeng Jiang from East China Normal University, China, (2) Prof Zhigang Shuai from The Chinese University of Hong Kong, China & (3) Prof Valentine P Ananikov from the Russian Academy of Sciences at this moment. We still welcome oral & poster presentations proposals to this Symposium. Additional information on the speakers and programme will be available later.
